THE JOHN E. SCHILLER CHAIR IN LEGAL ETHICS

John E. Schiller

The John E. Schiller Chair in Legal Ethics was endowed in 2010 in honor of John E. Schiller, a Cleveland business litigation lawyer, by David Henry Jacobs Jr. Jacobs became acquainted with Schiller in 2006 when he hired the attorney to represent him in a complex and highly contentious lawsuit.

“During the course of the litigation, I witnessed John’s integrity, judgment, passionate belief in the legal system and exceptional work ethic,” Jacobs said. Observing these traits inspired Jacobs to make a gift to the Maurer School of Law that will help advance the quality of its students’ legal education.

David Henry Jacobs Jr.

Indiana University’s Jacobs School of Music is named for Jacobs’ parents, Barbara and David H. Jacobs, in honor of the family’s $40.6 million gift to the school in 2005. It was during the announcement of that gift to the School of Music that Jacobs first became acquainted with IU Maurer School of Law Dean Lauren Robel, which led to the establishment of the Schiller Chair.

Hannah L. Buxbaum

Hannah L. Buxbaum joined the Indiana Law faculty in 1997 after practicing in the New York and Frankfurt offices of Davis Polk and Wardwell. She is a recipient of the school’s Leon H. Wallace Teaching Award and has twice won the Gavel Award for outstanding contribution to the graduating class. Buxbaum holds a BA cum laude from Cornell University and a JD magna cum laude from Cornell Law School, where she was elected to Order of the Coif. She also holds an LLM summa cum laude from the University of Heidelberg. Her research is in the areas of private international law and international litigation and jurisdiction, and she has published widely in both U.S. and European journals.
